Sub : Preparation of a Self-Learning Module for BA Philosophy

Dear Dr. Medonuo,

Greetings from Assam Don Bosco University, Guwahati.

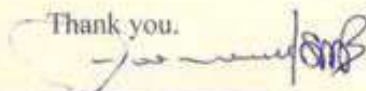

The Assam Don Bosco University has launched "BA in Philosophy" – a three year degree programme. The course structure and the detailed syllabus has already been approved by the Academic Council and the Board of Management of ADBU. Our focus now is on the preparation of the textbooks for the subjects of this course.

Your name has been proposed and approved for the preparation of the Self-Learning Manual on the topic "Sociology, paper II – Contemporary Indian Society", a 4 credit course. Thank you for accepting to prepare the Self-Learning Manual on the topic given above.

In this connection, I am attaching the basic structure, the detailed syllabus for this topic, as also another file of an SLM that has been prepared, which can serve as a sample for the methodology and language style used. Certainly, being a Self-Learning Manual, it has to be simple and easy to follow.

We would like to receive the soft copy of the final draft from you by the end of February 2017. (We shall be delighted if you can e-mail it to us earlier). There is no need to pay attention to formatting and editing, which we shall undertake, without making modifications that might affect the content of the text. We expect the SLM to come to pp.125-150, times Roman, 12. Once the text has been completed, kindly prepare a question bank for the on-line examinations which will be conducted at the end of the semester, though this question bank can be completed by you by the end of April 2017. ADBU will offer you a remuneration of Rs. 20,000/- for services rendered. Your name, as the author of the manual, will appear on the cover page as also the title page of the SLM.

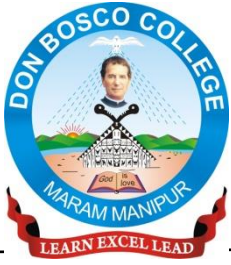

Thank you.
