St. Joseph's College (SJC) (Autonomous) Jakhama held its 7th spring fest, an annual cultural fest under the theme "My Culture, My Heritage" at the college campus on March 13 and 15, 2020.

Principal Secretary for School Education and SCERT, Menukhol John who was the special guest of the event applauded the college for the progress over the years and for working hard to become an autonomous college, who also aspire to become a university. He conveyed his best wishes to the college and hoped the God bestows his blessing upon them to be successful.

John maintained that the theme was appropriate for the season as everyone is in glamorous spring attire. He mentioned that as students, they should go to find about their roots by celebrating spring fest. He was reminded of a project called the "Laipang concept" where his department had partnered with Longleng to go back to the roots of how their forefathers taught them of how to become a gentleman and a gentle lady. Also, in Tuensang, they had partnered with few NGOs to go back to the roots and find out what their people had taught them to become a good gentlemen and gentle ladies, which is called the "Sochum concept". Their main aim is to bring about the wholesome growth of people.

Principal Secretary also advised the students to make the best use of college days to become somebody tomorrow. He said that in this fast changing world, it is easy to lose their bearings but one should make the best use of the good opportunity provided.

Yamaha artist, AKG brand ambassador, Nise Meruno, who was the guest appearance at the fest also presented a melodious song and shared the experiences of his music journey.

The programme was followed by folk dance competition, pork fat eating competition, modern dance competition and ethnic fashion show.

Naga Wrestling competition and Photography competition were also held. All results will be declared on Saturday.

On the second day of the fest, there will be beat contest, traditional fire making, cock catching, bamboo pole climbing, bamboo walk, go cart race and strongest Josephites contest.

The programme was earlier blessed with invocation by SJC (A) Vice Principal, Fr. George Keduolhou Angami and welcome address was proposed by SJC (A) Fr. Sebastian Ousepparampil.

13th Convergence Fest successfully organized by the Department of Business Administration, St Joseph's College (Autonomous) Jakhama

The Department of Business Administration, St. Joseph's College (Autonomous) Jakhama successfully organised the 13th Convergence Fest, an annual management fest of the college on 30th of September 2022, under the theme, "Limitless Possibilities" with its punchline "Bringing out the Gems in you". Dr. Nikiesalie Nicky Kire, Hon'ble Advisor, Urban Development and Municipal Affairs, Government of Nagaland, graced the occasion as the Guest speaker of the Fest.

Altogether 9 different colleges from Kohima and Dimapur Districts and 11 departments from St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Jakhama participated and competed in various events, such as, Business Plan, Mock Interview, Photography, Smartphone Movie, Arts, Mad Ads and Mr&Ms Convergence. One such important event includes the Panel Discussion where some of the great minds and Naga entrepreneurs had a serious talk on the topic "Stigma on non-governmental jobs". The panelists include, Mr. Kiviboto Sheqi, Managing Director, Pioneer Institute, Mr. Yanpvuo Kikon, Entrepreneur and Consultant, Mr. Lichan Humtsoe, Founder and CEO of ETE Coffee and Mr. MD Tabrej, Asst. Professor, Dept of Business Administration, SJC (A), Jakhama.

The event kick started with a countdown prelude video prepared by the students. Rev. Fr. Dr. George Keduolhou Angami, Principal, SJC(A) Jakhama invoked God's blessings on the Program. Mr. K. Zubemo Humtsoe, Director, Dept of Business Administration, SJC(A) welcomed the audience on behalf of the Department and the College, and the Convenor, 13th Convergence Fest, Mr. Daveilu Pao gave a brief introduction about the Convergence Fest.

Dr. Nicky, in his speech expressed his happiness to be a part of the mega event like this. While sharing his concern of the possibility of managing all the events in a single day, he encouraged the students to come together often, interact and learn from each other by participating in this kind of events. The Hon'ble Advisor also urged the students to come up in the field of entrepreneurship and all other types of professionalism which will benefit them as well as the state. He also warned the students not to become an SSO (Simply Sitting Officer), where such person simply sits and does nothing enjoying the luxury life at the cost of their parent's earning.

The introductory part of the program was compered jointly by Mr. Ahuto Shohe and Ms. Thejavinuo Savi, while Mr. Wokhro Venuh and Ms. Maneni A compered the later part of the program. Some of the renowned artist such as Peleno Zhasa, KL Pamei, Big Dane and Lapla Chang also entertained the participants with their performance during the concluding session of the fest. During the Prize Distribution ceremony, Tetso College from Dimapur bagged the Overall Champion of the 13th Convergence Fest and Sazolie College Kohima bagged the Best Disciplined Team. The fest concluded with the Vote of Thanks pronounced by Mr. Mughaputo Achumi, Co-Convenor, 13th Convergence Fest.
